DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Claims 29-36 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR

1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on July 16, 2007.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-28 provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-19 of copending Application No. 2006/0228903. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because both set of claims teach forming a silicon nitride film using a precursor containing disilacyclohexane.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 5, 6-8, and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by US Patent No. 4,720,532 to Seyferth et al..

In regard to claim 1, Seyferth teaches a method comprising: using a four-membered ring of alternating nitrogen and silicon atoms as a silicon precursor to form a silicon nitride film at column 2, line 1-12.

In regard to claim 2, Seyferth teaches the method of claim 1 further including using a nitrogen precursor to form a silicon nitride film at column 1, lines 63-68.

In regard to claim 5, Seyferth teaches the method of claim 1 including using a halogenated cyclodisilazane at column 2, lines 10-12.

In regard to claim 6, Seyferth teaches the method of claim 1 including using an amine substituted cyclodisilazane at column 2, lines 12-18

In regard to claim 7, Seyferth teaches the method of claim 1 including using cyclodisilazane including an organic group containing one to approximately 20 carbon atoms at column 3, lines 32-40.

In regard to claim 8, Seyferth teaches the method of claim 2 including using a nitrogen precursor selected from the group consisting of ammonia, hydrazine and a substituted hydrazine at column 1, lines 63-68.

In regard to claim 11, Seyferth teaches a method comprising: using a silicon precursor to form a silicon nitride film, said silicon precursor being a substituted ring comprising the general formula: $(\text{Si})_{\text{a}}(\text{N})_{\text{2a}}$, where silicon is bound to two nitrogens, where said nitrogens are bound to said silicon and nitrogen, and where a is an integer greater than or equal to one at column 2, lines 1-18.
